Midweek Lenten Services and Meal

LENTEN

Mid-Week Worship

Midweek Lenten services continue through April 10. Join us in the chapel at 7:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. for worship. This year’s focus is “Walking with the Prophets.” During this journey we will ponder suffering with Job, deliverance with Jonah, waiting for the Lord with Zephaniah, seeking justice with Amos, and rejoicing with Isaiah. Images and homilies during the midweek service will point to the paths we take alongside these prophets looking to Christ our guide, our savior, and our Lord. A light meal will be provided Wednesday evenings at 6:15p.m. in the cafe. Meals will be hosted by various ministries of St. Peter’s. Be sure to join us as we journey together through the season of Lent!

Name Tag Sunday—April 7th

Remember that Sunday, April 7th will be Name Tag Sunday. Do you have something purple you can wear for Lent? If not, no fear, we'll have plenty of generic name tags on a narthex table for you to use. (But come on ... a purple name tag will make you stand out in the crowd!). Make it easy for yourself and others to greet those people about whom you know much (where they sit in church, how many kids they have, how they sing hymns, etc.), but for whom you may not yet know their name.

Passion Readers Needed

If you would be interested in serving as a reader for one of the Passion Narrative readings on our April 14th Palm Sunday services (8:00 or 10:45 traditional and 10:45 New Day) please speak with Pr. Craig for the traditional service readings or Pr. Sarah for the New Day readings. One rehearsal will be asked of participants on Saturday, April 13th at 9AM at church.

Devotional Series: Stretch and Pray

Have you tried out the video devotional series called Stretch & Pray? Pastor Sarah and Erik Teichmann have been creating a video series that includes the health of stretching and praying. Videos are available on the St. Peter's Facebook page or go to our website <https://stpeterslutheran.org/stretch-and-pray/> Each video includes a series of stretches and a verse of a psalm to say while stretching. Take time to stretch and pray during your Lenten journey.

Sacrament of Holy Baptism

The Sacrament of Holy Baptism will next be celebrated on Saturday, April 20th at the 6:00 p.m. Easter Vigil Service. Interested persons should speak with one of the pastors.

Drivers Needed on April 18 for Sages Service

Might you consider giving a ride to and from the Sages service and luncheon on Thursday, April 18? Often our Sages need a ride to the service and luncheon. If you could help, please sign up on the Parish Life bulletin board outside the church nursery or call Christine Smith at 717-299-0949. Approximate times are 10:30 a.m. pick up time and return at 1:00 p.m.

Easter Plant Delivery

Our altar will be dressed with many beautiful plants on Easter Sunday but they'd like a permanent home. Please consider delivering an Easter plant to one of our homebound members who won't be able to make it to a church service on Easter. Sign up is available on the Parish Life bulletin board outside the church nursery or call Christine Smith at 717-299-0949 if you are able to deliver a plant and a smile to one of our older members. Fifteen volunteer delivers are needed, so please consider helping.

“Church on the Go” in the Café at 6:00 p.m. Holy Thursday is in the midst of a busy week, like most weeks. So instead of skipping one of the most important events in the life of Jesus and our remembrance of Jesus' Last Supper, join us for “CHURCH ON THE GO” on April 18th at 6:00 p.m. for a fellowship meal and a brief sharing of the meaning of PASSOVER and the Last Supper. We will be meeting in the Café. Come from work or school bringing a packed meal from home or your favorite “Take Out” establishment. Bring all that you need to eat this meal-on-the-go. This will be an informal family friendly event with a sharing of the Lord's Supper. We expect to be finished with the meal and worship within 45 minutes. Pastor Pretz will have an activity for the youngest pre-communion members of our families during the communion distribution. Weekdays are very busy so take this day for a stop at St Peter's with your packed meal at 6:00 p.m. and be on the road again before 7:00 p.m.! One could also stay for the formal congregational observance of Maundy Thursday in the Sanctuary at 7:00 p.m.

Adult Christian Education

Wednesday Morning Bible Study

Wednesday Morning Bible Study will meet throughout the month of April, as we continue to work through our study of our “Comparative Study of the Four Gospels.” We are journeying through the narrative of Jesus’ life in all four of our gospels, with an eye to the places where the Gospels agree and differ in their content, along with the theological lenses through which they portray Jesus’ life. We will follow this study through the remainder of the year into early May.

Why not consider joining this vibrant group of 40-50 fellow believers as we study familiar material in ways that always open up faith discussion, historical reflection, and theological questions. ADVOCACY CORNER

By Sister Dottie

As members of the ELCA, we believe that we are freed in Christ to serve and love our neighbor. God uses our hands, through our direct service work and our voices, through our advocacy efforts, to restore and reconcile our world. Through faithful advocacy, the ELCA lives out our Lutheran belief that governments can help advance the common good.

ELCA advocacy works for change in public policy based on the experience of Lutheran ministries, programs and projects around the world and in communities across the United States. We work through political channels on behalf of the following biblical values: peacemaking, hospitality to strangers, care for creation, and concern for people living in poverty and struggling with hunger and disease. (www.lutheranadvocacy.org)

I invite you to read the website for Lutheran Advocacy Ministry of PA, aka Lampa, to understand the issues and positions of the ELCA. If you are interested in learning more, Lutheran Advocacy Day will take place in Camp Hill on Monday May 20th. Health and Wellness Committee

April: National Autism Awareness Month

What is autism?

Autism spectrum disorder (ASD) is a broad term used to describe a group of neurodevelopmental disorders. These disorders are characterized by problems with communication and social interaction. People with ASD often demonstrate restricted, repetitive, and stereotyped interests or patterns of behavior. ASD is found in individuals around the world, regardless of race, culture, or economic background. There are currently five different ASD subtypes, or specifiers. They are:

- with or without accompanying intellectual impairment
- with or without accompanying language impairment
- associated with a known medical or genetic condition or environmental factor
- associated with another neurodevelopmental, mental, or behavioral disorder
- with catatonia

The exact cause of ASD is unknown. The most current research demonstrates that there's no single cause.

What are the symptoms of autism?

Autism symptoms typically become clearly evident during early childhood, between 12 and 24 months of age. However, symptoms may also appear earlier or later. Early symptoms may include a marked delay in language or social development. They are divided into two categories of symptoms: problems with communication and social interaction, and restricted or repetitive patterns of behavior or activities. Problems with communication and social interaction include: issues with communication, including difficulties sharing emotions, sharing interests, or maintaining a back-and-forth conversation. trouble maintaining eye contact or reading body language. Restricted or repetitive patterns of behavior or activities include: repetitive movements, motions, or speech patterns or rigid adherence to specific routines or behaviors, an increase or decrease in sensitivity to specific sensory information from their surroundings, such as a negative reaction to a specific sound.

Tithe.ly and the Way We Give

The Easter season is approaching and as you ponder ways you may give in service to the Lord, we invite you to think of ways you may offer your charitable giving. One of the newer platforms St. Peter's offers is through Tithe.ly -- as in tithing your income as a way to give back to God for all God has given you. You know about traditional giving -- you see it first-hand every time we pass the offering plate. Tithe.ly lets you give whenever you feel called -- easily, securely, and faithfully.

Simply visit stpeterslutheran.org/give on your phone, tablet, or computer to give a gift immediately, or take a moment to set up a recurring gift on a schedule that works for you. You can give whenever and wherever as a way to faithfully respond as God's stewards. You can easily control how much you want to give and when, and change your recurring gift at any time. Your contributions will be recorded on your church giving statement.

Digital giving is a great tool for supporting the everyday ministries of the church, and a timely one for when we need to respond quickly to a need in our greater community.

You can visit stpeterslutheran.org/give and sign up to give with your credit or debit card, or electronic funds transfer.

God is active here and now in this place, and we're called to faithfully respond to God's call in the 21st century. Tithe.ly helps us give and serve with 21st century means. Visit stpeterslutheran.org/give and give it a try today!

Formation of a Piano Committee

The church council has authorized the formation of a piano committee to look into replacing the current instrument in the sanctuary with a larger instrument that is better suited for the large space. The committee has met a couple of times to discuss the process and to begin to determine interest in such a project. Keep your eyes out for the committee's findings in the May Herald and other communications to follow. If you have questions, please contact Adam at adam.hughes@stpeterslutheran.org.

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends:

Did you have something to eat this morning? Not a person who starts your day with breakfast? Tsk, tsk ... most important meal of the day, right, as we set a healthy foundation for the rest of the meals that will follow. We have more nutrition and diet information that we can realistically process. It seems like everyone from movie stars, to pop culture icons, to doctors, to yoga instructors have advice for you about what you should eat, when you should eat it and why it is healthy.

Well good news, folks, God has just one dietary message for you, and it has been the same message for like the past million years ... OK, more specifically, it's been the same one since the time of the Last Supper, circa 33 CE. That's a long time in either case. The message of course, is this ... "Take and eat, this is my body; take and drink, this is my blood." It is a pretty simple message. Of course, life in the Christian Church is rarely simple, and so all kinds of historic factors have shaped the practice around this simple command to "take and eat...take and drink." History ... clergy shortages ... pietism ... personal preferences ... time management ... the list is longer, but these are some of the more significant factors that have led to occasional or even regular Sunday worship gatherings around just the Word, instead of Word and Sacrament.

We have talked about the variety of pieties and preferences here at St. Peter's since the time I was first called as your associate pastor in 1986. We have talked a lot ... we have struggled with practical issues and with theological issues in our discussions ... we have questioned the balance of more frequent communion services with all the other things that happen on a Sunday morning. All of that has been good and healthy. Luther was fond of reminding us that "we are all priests before our God." So you are as much a theologian as I am. But given some changes in our worship landscape in recent years, it seems an apropos time to revisit this conversation again.

So your pastors in conjunction with the Worship Committee have agreed to host an experiment for the Easter season, which begins on April 21 (mark your calendars 8AM worshippers, the early service is 7:30 on Easter Sunday). We will commune at all three of our Sunday services during the seven week Easter season. Since the Day of Pentecost is a theological close to the season (and is a festival in which we already have communion at all services), the "experiment" will actually run for eight weeks. It is a modest experiment, as five of those eight weeks are already communion Sundays, per our normal communion schedule. But it will give us a taste of a modest stretch of weekly communion.

We will have some formal opportunities for feedback after we worship through the season, but in the meantime, we always love to hear from you and what you are thinking. Just send us (your pastors, or Worship Committee) a note ... email us ... FB message us ... send a carrier pigeon ... stop in for a chat. Our hope is that we will have some vibrant discussion around our experiment. Your pastors and Worship Committee see this as a time of exploration and growing in our faith. We pray that you will be able to see it in the same light. Until then, I'll ...

See you in Church ...

Pastor Craig

Pastor Sarah's Message

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

A few weeks ago Pastor Craig and I had the pleasure to sit down with the newest members of our community of faith. We love the chance to engage with people during our new members' class. It is a time where we can share our mission, "Building a community of faith by God's grace" and share stories of the ways we worship, learn, gather, and serve. We certainly enjoy sharing! But we also greatly enjoy listening.

I love it when different people gather around and share how the Lord led them to be part of this community of faith. Perhaps few new members would use the phrase, "The Lord led me to this time and place," but when I listen to their stories, I witness the Lord's handiwork. Some of the ways I witness the Lord at work:

The Lord works through the laughter of our children: Some of our newest members spoke about how the laughter of their children in St. Peter's Preschool ushered them from the hallways of the preschool into the worshipping spaces of our church. So many of our new members spoke about how they kept on coming back as visitors because they saw the joy children bring in worship and with every giggle, wiggle, and shout they see the Holy Spirit at work.

The Lord works through technology: Some of our newest members spoke about going to the maps app of their phone or Googling "Lutheran Church" and finding our website, and from there seeking more about the ways we worship, learn, gather, and serve in Jesus' name.

The Lord works through you: New members in this class and classes in the past have pointed to one or two people who invited them to come. You invited (maybe offered the invitation a few times) and perhaps offered to go with them to a worship service, a Bible study, a children's event, or a community outreach opportunity. And your invitation made all the difference.

I think when we consider the word Evangelism we get a little scared or put off because we think of overbearing, argumentative models of behavior. This doesn't have to be this way. Evangelism really means 'good news,' and taking part in our new members classes I got to witness the good news of joy, the good news of sharing, and the good news of invitation.

So friends, be part of the good news. Here's an idea... this season is a GREAT time to invite someone!

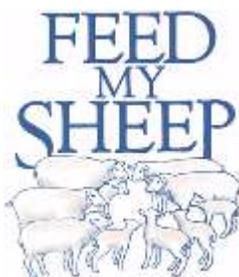

- Invite a buddy to the Palm Sunday breakfast (April 14 at 9-10am) and worship.
- Invite a parent and their children to the Good Friday Waffles and Worship (April 19 at 9am) or the Good Friday Children's Stations of the Cross (April 19 at noon).
- Invite someone in your family to come to Easter services with you (7:30, 9, 10:45-Traditional and 10:45 New Day).

Be a messenger of God's good (AWESOME) news of love and grace!

Peace,

Pastor Sarah

Letter From the Vicar

Dear Congregation,

There are two types of waning. A moon wanes when a progressively smaller part of its visible surface is illuminated. It appears to decrease in size. Having rounded the half-way point of my internship at St. Peter's several months ago, as I begin my last quarter with you, I am waning in this sense.

My hope for the future is that you will not experience the second kind of waning from me: notice a decrease, see a diminishing, or sense a contracting (vicar). As I currently finish up my final seminary course (online) and work toward Approval by my candidacy committee, I may indeed be waning in the amount of time I spend attending activities and meetings.

In truth, I am still with you for three more months. My care for you and depth of investment in St. Peter's continues to grow and has not yet reached its most visible state, a full moon. I continue to receive useful input from my internship committee, you and the staff.

I already grieve the thought of not having you in my life and leaving the comfortable spaces in which I've made myself at home. If you haven't already, come visit me in my office; it is cozy. There's a beautiful handmade quilt on the wall given to me by St. Peter's quilters. The entire room features crafted handiwork. As you walk in, you'll see a family heirloom (of sorts), a green and gold oriental rug. A large begonia (that in the past only ever produced leaves), has finally bloomed under ideal conditions.

Thank you for making the conditions of my internship conducive to personal and professional growth and flowering. In your own unique ways you have provided good soil and nourishment to strengthen the roots of my calling. Being pruned by critique or a lack of reward never felt fun, but it has been marvelous to experience the effects. You multiplied the number of pathways made available to me. It's all been very much worth the undertaking and I am so grateful to you all.

Love,

Vicar Nancy

St. Peter's Preschool

Our preschool is almost completely full for the upcoming 2019/20 school year. This is a great testament to the strength of our program and talent of our teaching staff. Waiting lists are forming and it seems like St. Peter's is the school with buzz in the community. Thanks to everyone who helps support the work we do here. We appreciate that so much.

Gary Williams, Sister Dottie and I attended an all day training seminar at Thaddeus Stevens on March 7th which concentrated on Active Shooter protocol. This was one of several sessions we have attended in an effort to provide the safest and most secure environment for our parishioners, staff, preschoolers and families. We are committed to our mission of establishing some simple guidelines and procedures which will greatly increase the integrity of our church surroundings. We plan to be meeting regularly with experienced security personnel, first responders in our area and church members with firsthand knowledge. Please help support this important initiative by being vigilant and aware at all times, and by keeping outside doors locked. Together, we can enjoy a safe and secure church. Thanks to all of our church family.

Holy Things

*To the bath and the table,
To the prayers and the word,
I call every seeking soul.*

As we approach the time of year we call Holy Week, our thoughts turn toward the central things to our existence as Christians. Of course the stories we tell this time of year are important: the command to love one another, the passion of Jesus, the history of salvation, and Jesus' resurrection. Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter Vigil, and Easter Sunday are full of amazing occurrences which challenge our ideas about power and weakness, life and death.

As Lutherans, we hold two categories as being central to expressing our faith: Word and Sacrament. The Word part of worship encompasses all those places where God speaks to us: bible readings, preaching, hymns, prayers, and blessings. Sacraments are those holy signs where God truly comes among us and they are accompanied by more words. In the Lutheran church we confess two Sacraments: Baptism and Communion, signs of cleansing water and a communal meal shared for all.

The above inscription, found on the bell of West Denmark Lutheran Church in Luck, WI (the bell was destroyed in a 1985 fire), presents an interesting view of church and how God meets us in worship. The words bath, meal, and word clearly match up to our "church"-y words of Baptism, Communion, and scripture or terms for the physical items associated with these important parts of our faith such as font, altar, and Bible. Interestingly, the inscription chooses to describe these things as actions central to human existence. Cleaning, eating, and communal living figure highly on a list of items required for healthy living.

The choice to make use of the words bath, table, and word reminds us that God goes with us in all places of life. We meet God in worship, but we also can be reminded of baptism during a spring rain, communion at a meal with friends and/or family, and God's word when we meet each other in those tough places in life. Worship, and particularly worship during Holy Week, is merely a practicing ground for our daily lives. In worship we practice cleansing reconciliation, sharing all that we have with others, and encouraging each other with the words of God so we can go out to show the world how to live fully.

This Holy Week and Easter, see what other connections the bath, table, and word may pop up in your lives and make an effort to get to church to practice these things in community. Let the bath, table, and word be signs and symbols of God going with us now and always.

OUR MISSION

Building a community of faith by God's grace.

“This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you.”

John 15:12

OUR VISION

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran Church will show our love for God, our love for neighbors, and our desire to make disciples.

Because we love God, we will:

- Worship and pray together.
- Help each other develop a meaningful relationship with God.
- Model our faith to children, youth, and others.

Because we love our neighbor, we will:

- Serve one another, especially the unseen and underserved within our congregation.
- Support those in need in our Lancaster community and in the world through our ties with the Lower Susquehanna Synod and the Evangelical Lutheran Church of America.
- Love others boldly in a diverse and changing world, deepening relationships with our neighbors.

Because we desire to make disciples, we will:

- Seek to teach God's love through adult education, our programs for children and youth, and our preschool.
- Offer small groups that connect God's Word to our everyday lives and create communities of faith.
- Share the good news in creative and authentic ways with the St. Peter's family and with neighbors in our community.
