Congregational Meeting – October 25th A Vote on Beginning the Mission Campaign

On October 25th we will have two historic firsts at St. Peter’s. Our first-ever virtual Congregational Meeting ... and our first-ever Mission Campaign. If you are a bit long of beard here at St. Peter’s, you may remember a number of capital appeals and building campaigns over the years that did everything from expanding our church building footprint to adding HVAC systems. But we have never had a “Mission Campaign.” Why the distinctive language? Because our expectation is that the proposal our Congregation Council places before you for a fundraising campaign is going to touch down in more areas than HVAC upgrades, parking lot repairs, debt reduction and Wi-Fi work. Our expectation is that our proposed fundraising efforts will also enhance existing and new ministries at St. Peter’s as the focal parts of our updated Mission Statement ... thus the term “Mission Campaign”. A church is not the Church, unless we are invested in mission beyond our walls, both near and far. This campaign will also help us achieve these ministry goals.

The specific details of which missions and ministries will be enhanced (or created) is not available yet, because we are also in the early stage of a Strategic Planning process that, with YOUR help, will allow us to identify the ministries here that need further strengthening and supporting along with the new ministries that are waiting to find expression in our congregational life through the support of our congregational time, talents, and treasures. Our Mission Campaign will take care of business in terms of restoring some of the property issues noted above that need attention ... it will allow us to pay down our mortgage in a significant way ... and it will create seed money for some other ministry projects ... ministries that YOU will be determining for us.

So, I expect to “see” you on October 25th, as we ask you to consider an affirmative vote to move forward with our Mission Campaign. What you will be asked to vote in favor of is entering into a contract with Kirby-Smith Associates to guide us through both this visioning process and the assessment of the financial as well as time & talent support for this mission appeal. The consultation fee for Kirby-Smith to lead this campaign $44,500. With the help and guidance of Richie & Rachel Musser, we hope to raise at least $1.3 million. Richie and Rachel have been an invaluable presence in guiding us through our recent feasibility study and in helping us identify realistic goals for this campaign. The consultation fee for the campaign is only about 3% of that expected mission goal. That is a very competitive fee for helping us to raise this amount of money for our physical plant and ministries. You pay a higher rate than that on your credit card, or your Boscov's charge. The Mussers have also been a valuable resource in organizing and coaching the strategic planning process noted earlier in this letter. Begun in August, the planning process should conclude with recommendations to Council in January 2021. The excellence of leadership, wisdom and experience that the Mussers bring to their stewardship ministry among us is significant and timely, to say the least.

As mentioned, the other historic "first" is that we will use as a vehicle of approval, our first virtual congregational meeting. We are currently working to select a virtual meeting platform that will allow us to have presentations ... and answer questions ... and vote in a manner that fulfills the expectations Pennsylvania law requires of us as a non-profit organization. We are also bound by our Lower Susquehanna synod constitutional requirements for a congregational meeting, and so the platform we choose must also fulfill our church constitutional needs for a valid congregational meeting.

We appreciate you tuning in on Sunday, October 25th at 9:00 a.m. for our specially called Congregational Meeting to consider the recommendation: "To contract with Kirby-Smith Associates, in the amount of $44,500, to lead a Mission Campaign beginning in the fall of 2020 and continuing into 2023 to meet our existing and potential mission goals for St. Peter's."

On behalf of your church staff, I thank you for your consideration and support of our upcoming Mission Campaign under the guidance of Kirby-Smith Associates through the consultation of Richie & Rachel Musser.

God's Peace,
Pastor Craig

Weekly Updates

Please watch the church website <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org> every Wednesday afternoon at approximately 4:00 p.m. for a short article updating news around the church for the week. It is our attempt to keep you connected to “all things St. Peter’s” and the continual unfolding of congregational life in a digital world. You’ll find updates on worship life, new Zoom groups that are beginning, news from the broader church and how it affects our life together, and service opportunities that may present themselves within our church and out in our community.

Giving Thanks for The Ways You Give

Thank you for being faithful stewards of God’s good gifts. We give thanks for the many ways that you have enabled the continuation of St. Peter’s mission in the midst of very trying times. Thank you for mailing in your contributions and for using Tithe.ly or Simply Giving for your contributions.

For more information about digital giving visit <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/give/>

Benevolence Payments

Please be aware that through the month of September, we are fully up to date on all of our benevolent commitments, and have also paid in full the yearly funds to our local benevolent commitments here in Lancaster. With your strong and sacrificial offerings, we have been able to be generous to local charities and missions which are part of our benevolence budget, as they struggle to keep their ministries vibrant and functioning.

St. Peter's Archives

The Dedication of St. Peter's first church in 1881
was memorable for several reasons and ended with a skirmish!

Lancaster Intelligencer – June 29, 1881 – Dedication of St. Peter's – *Impressive Services followed by a Row – On Sunday, St. Peter's Lutheran Church at Neffsville, was dedicated with impressive services, conducted both in the German and English languages. The attendance was quite large. The services were led by Rev. Peters, of Manheim, the pastor in charge, Rev. Riemensnyder, and Rev. Meister of this city. St. Stephen's choir, of this city, furnished excellent music during the afternoon and evening. Everything passed off very pleasantly until the close of the evening service when a gang of disorderlies raised something of a row by using insulting language to the ladies and by trying to throw a live cat among the retiring congregation. They attacked and badly whipped Albert Nickle, a young man who remonstrated against their conduct.

Semi-Weekly New Era – July 2, 1881 – *A TERRIBLE OUTRAGE – On Sunday, a number of clergymen from the city went to Neffsville, to dedicate the new church of St. Peter's. The choir of St. Stephen's German Lutheran Church, of this city, Rev. Meister, pastor, also went out for the purpose of assisting in the musical part of the services. During the evening service a couple of young men were observed in the gallery of the church, and it soon became evident that they meant mischief. They were under the influence of liquor and had kittens concealed about their persons, which they intended dropping upon the heads of the worshippers below, but they were watched too closely and were unable to do this. After the congregation had been dismissed, St. Stephen's choir, or a portion of it, left the church, and as they approached the residence of Dr. Bowman (the large yellow B&B on Rt. 501) a number of drunken roughs lined the passage and caught the young ladies by their arms. Against this conduct Albert Nickel, a member of the choir, remonstrated, when he was knocked down and brutally kicked. Regaining his feet he escaped from the infuriated mob and sought refuge in Brubaker's hotel, where he was protected until he could be smuggled into an omnibus. It is to be regretted that the blackguards who made this assault could not have been identified and punished.

Lancaster Intelligencer – July 9, 1910 – OBITUARY - Albert Nickel*, a well-known citizen, and member of the city police force, died at 11 o'clock Friday morning, at his home, 674 Union St. The deceased had been in ill health for a year or more, and the direct cause of death was dropsy. He was born fifty-two years ago in Neffsville, Manheim Township, but spent the greater part of his life residing in Lancaster. He served as a patrol driver during both terms of Mayor McCaskey and was reappointed by Mayor McClain. He is survived by his wife and eleven children. The deceased was a member of the Lutheran Church, Knights of Friendship and Schiller Death Benefit Association. The funeral will take place Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment in Greenwood Cemetery. (Albert Nickel is the same young man mentioned in the two articles above).

Health and Wellness Committee

October – Healthy Lung Month

Lung disease affects a huge number of Americans. Around 10 million are diagnosed with chronic bronchitis each year, 25 million are believed to be living with asthma, and over 150,000 die from lung cancer annually. Lung health has been a concern throughout history. Diseases such as tuberculosis, the flu, and many other airborne ailments have been around for a long time, looming over societies like a deadly blanket. (We can now add COVID-19 to the list).

We rarely think about breathing, except when it's hard to do. During a normal day we breathe ~25,000 times according to the National Institutes of Health. Because of your heart, the right lung is larger than the left lung, and - they float!

HOW TO OBSERVE HEALTHY LUNG MONTH

*Give up smoking *Get a check up *Clean your house *And..... Know the warning signs: If you have a cough that won't go away, see your doctor. It may be nothing, but it could be an early warning sign of a respiratory condition. Other symptoms include tightness of the chest, wheezing, and ongoing shortness of breath, especially when physically exerting yourself.

Healthy Lung Month is an opportunity for many organizations to join forces to educate the public about the importance of protecting our lungs against general neglect, disease, mold, air pollution, and smoking, and create an awareness around healthy lifestyle choices. (And let's take a moment to thank our Respiratory personnel who celebrate Respiratory Care week 10/25 – 10/31/2020.)

Lydia's Closet

Lydia's Closet is OPEN the first Saturday of the month from 10:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. in the Youth Lounge and we are continuing to offer our services to students. Since we are unable to have our families come and shop in person we are having them fill out order forms for children who need clothing. Flexibility is something we are all learning! Please pass the information along to any of your friends and neighbors that may be in need of some extra help. The clothing bank is always in need of new underwear, especially for older teens (adult sizes). We are also in need of socks! Please drop off socks in our donation bin located at the St Peter's front door, or visit our wishlist on Amazon and have them delivered straight to the Church. ## Membership

Fall 2020 New Member Class: October 4 and October 11

Are you interested in becoming a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church? Now is the time to join our faith family. During "these extraordinary times" and times of uncertainty, we want you to know and be certain that you have a place here with us. Whether we gather in person, via zoom, or livestream. For our new member classes we want to meet with you — and we can do so in person or online.

Want to know more? Email Pastor Sarah Teichmann sarah.teichmann@stpeterslutheran.org or call the church office at 717-569-9211

Updates to the Church Directory

Sometime in the next few months, you will be receiving a call from either a staff member or a volunteer asking to update your family's information. You will be asked to correct your address, phone numbers, and email addresses since much of our data is outdated. We are also trying to categorize our adult children as to whether they are attending or have moved on to another worship experience.

The goal is to establish an accurate membership roll. It is part of the important strategic plan that is being developed. If you receive a message, please respond. It is important to our future!

Please feel free to contact Betsy Linn at betsy.linn@stpeterslutheran.org with any questions.

Groups and Events

Pastor's Letter

Dear Friends:

Can you believe we are in this mess for six months now? A half a year of living in a pandemic world. Crazy. Who would have believed this to be possible as we crawled out of our New Year's hangovers, and began our systematic breaking of all our New Year's resolutions? But such is life. As I think about the past half a year, I find myself reflecting on what I have learned ....

I have learned that while I consider myself an introvert, and don't think that I need to ever be around people, that the incarnational (God in flesh) nature of faith is diminished when we never get to actually be with each other "in the flesh."

I have learned that the pressure of living in a world that has a greater risk of serious illness and death, oft times brings out the best in people. I have observed far more people smiling and saying hello to me and other strangers ... far more people saying thanks when they are the recipients of the most modest of kind gestures ... and far more people taking the time to seriously engage their lives and homes and families.

I have learned that people truly are interested in "helping their neighbor" in ways that may seem modest and simple ... but which none-the-less gives shape to what I believe resides in every person God has created ... the desire to help those in need. (I have also learned that there are also a very few people who seem to work pretty hard to keep that helping spirit buried as deeply in their spirits and bodies as is humanly possible.)

I have learned that the statement I regularly make which claims that I loathe being in front of cameras ... is actually true. Few things suck the life out of me more than having a lens in my face. Having said that, I must also state that I could not be more grateful for the Teichmann family, and Adam Lefever-Hughes, for their digital wizardry in helping us communicate with you through an incredibly wide range of digital platforms and offerings. I do however pray daily that God will bring live worship back to the world sooner than later.

I have learned that this community of faith (and probably many others – I just don't know them well enough to make observations about their life together) ... yes, this community of faith ... our community of faith is extremely resilient. I am regularly humbled by you who are reading these words. When I see you reaching out to each other and to those who are struggling with kind words, encouraging ministrations, friendly gestures, and heartfelt love for others. You embody what church is supposed to be at its best.

I have learned that while some days I feel morose and hopeless, far more of the days I find myself encouraged by our church (and our world, as far as I can assess), because the spirit of hope and purpose resides in people, even when the chips are down, and luck seems to be running out. My thanks to so many of you for being the face and the voice and the heart of that spirit of hope and purpose.

See you in virtual church,

Pastor Sarah's Message

Dear friends in Christ,

Do you remember the early days of March 2020? At the time, I don't think any of us had an honest idea of the scope of time this pandemic would be. Some of those early days seem foggy now. The phrase that comes to mind, that I found myself saying over and over and over again was, "we are church together." It was such an important phrase for me to say and to hear. We are church... together. Even if we couldn't physically be together. Somehow through Christ we are church together.

And we still are church together.

Some of the ways we are church together look a bit different. I look out my office window as I'm writing this letter, and I see folks gathered together for a book study under our car port. Masked, socially distanced, but engaging and being community for one another. In the next few days I get to be "church together" with a new Mom's Bible study here at the church and the new volleyball fellowship time at the Hosler family's backyard. And I continue to experience how we are church together every time I welcome folks during our online Church@Home live stream or when I click on a zoom link and participate in Bible study, like the Looking to Sunday Bible study on Tuesdays at 12:30pm (email me if you want in!)

We are church together. So here are some important ways that we can continue being church together.

Worshipping Together

In these months we have worshiped online from the comfort of our couches and I've seen several of you worship at our Drive-In Worship service. We are exploring ways that we might worship in the sanctuary, as well. You can find out more information about worship by visiting <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/worship/>.

Learning and Gathering Together

It is awesome to see how we are church together as we learn about our faith and gather in small groups. I see God's work in you as you find ways to connect with each other—either in person or online. And if you haven't yet been part of Christian Education or a small group, what are you waiting for? Let's be church together! For more information, Check out the following on our website: <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/learn/> and <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/gather/>

October 25 Congregational Voting

On October 25 we will be having an online congregational meeting to vote on going forward with the Mission Campaign. Need a reminder of the Feasibility Study results? Refresh your memory by looking at the Feasibility Study summary or rewatch the March 31 webinar explaining the feasibility study led by Richie Musser. Go to <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/mission-campaign/> and be church together by being informed about this vote.

These are just a few of the ways that we are church together as children of God. I look forward to continuously being church together with you.

Peace,

Pastor Sarah

Worship and Mission

This month as we consider the mission of the church, St. Peter's mission to its community, and the realities of fall with limited in-person connection, I thought I'd take a moment in this newsletter to consider the relationship between worship and mission. This month we're voting on a Mission Campaign and while at first glance it may seem that worship is a separate arm of the church, I propose that worship is central to the mission of the church.

In worship, God calls us to acts of loving service. We are confronted with the core teachings from Jesus' ministry over the course of the liturgical year. Our lives are transformed by these teachings and we are sent out into the world to proclaim the goodness of the Lord we have received in Christ Jesus.

In worship, we practice the work of reconciliation. Confession and forgiveness, prayers of intercession and sharing the peace are all parts of our worship service which allow us to practice reconciling with our neighbors, even those neighbors with whom we disagree. Practicing such reconciliation in the safe space of worship symbolizes the work of reconciliation for which we are sent to advocate.

In worship, we give up some of our individual preferences and desires for the good of the community. We may not all like the song Amazing Grace, some among us may be tired of singing it, but that doesn't mean we refuse to participate because we don't like it. Instead, we participate because we know it will mean something to the larger community. Worship teaches us that the work of supporting one another as a community sometimes means doing work in support of our neighbor that we would otherwise prefer not to do.

Worship AS Mission is a popular topic in liturgical writings these days and it provides an interesting way to look at our worship service. As selfish human beings, we all have a tendency to look at worship from the viewpoint of "how will this benefit me." Yet, in a community which hopes to serve those in greatest need, there is value in considering worship from the viewpoint of "how will this benefit the community."

Thus, considering worship as part of the mission of the church may alter the way we look at worship services. We may find ourselves asking different questions of the different parts of our worship services. It has been my experience that a life lived in faith is a life lived with unanswered questions. Sometimes, rather than coming up with answers to those questions, the task at hand is to find better, higher, more nuanced questions to ask.

So, I leave you with a series of questions that I ponder as we consider the mission of the church in light of worship. Why do we do what we do in worship? How do these words and actions show forth Christ? What are the primary reasons we gather for worship and for whose service do we gather? The individual answers to these questions may look very different, but our God remains the same steadfast God who loves us, for Christ's sake, and will never let us go.

You can do as many takes as you like and send your favorite one to be included during our worship services. We want to see all of you making some beautiful music while at home!

Music Thursdays – Music Fundamentals

Look for a video on the church's Facebook page (facebook.com/stpeterslancaster) or YouTube - subscribe at <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/live/> every Thursday to learn more about music. Adam will spend a little time each week talking about reading music, singing hymns, and music as it relates to the church. ## St. Peter's Preschool

While our preschool hallways are unusually quiet and our classrooms temporarily empty, our teachers are busy working with students remotely in order to keep connections strong and vital until we can be reunited in person. We have over 60 families signed up for our free online lessons and we have been blessed by parents sending pictures of their little students hard at work and sharing their guided creations. September's lessons have included songs, books, art activities and even a virtual Nature Walk! Themes have focused on self awareness, confidence, squirrels, apples and the Fall season. While this online curriculum cannot replicate the energy and dynamics of in person education, we can certainly establish bonds between teachers and their potential students, and share the joys of learning while we safely engage with each other from a distance.

If you have children of preschool age, please join us! There is no fee for viewing and participating in our online component and you may join at any time. Videos are posted for viewing every Tuesday and Thursday. Simply send your email address to: stpeterspreschooltime@gmail.com

You will then receive a link to the videos and information regarding themes and materials needed to participate. Learning and growing with St. Peter's Preschool is fun and joyful, even if we can't see you in person!

From the Volunteer Steward

Happy October! We are finally seeing relief from one of the hottest summers on record. Even though some restrictions have lessened, we are still unable to have large group gatherings inside, here at the church. Our leadership has continued to provide options for worship. Consider joining us for outside worship at 4:00 on Sunday evenings, in the parking lot.

This fall, St. Peter's is offering many educational experiences that will serve several purposes. You may learn something new, and it will give you a chance to reconnect with other members. Follow the link to the website to see all the options being offered. <https://www.stpeterslutheran.org/learn/>

We are still seeking leadership from our members. We have several key committees that are seeking members to lead us forward. Stewardship needs a leader. Steve Roberts is stepping down after providing direction for the past 7 years. And we need more people for Long Range Planning to help guide us into the future. These are just a small sampling of areas we'd like to provide with more help. As you start to get back into your life, please consider St. Peter's as a place to volunteer your time and talents. We Need You!

Please feel free to contact me with any questions or concerns you may be having.

Please stay safe,

Betsy Linn, Volunteer Steward
